

Candor shines with multiple nominations

HIA HUNTER HOUSING AND KITCHEN & BATHROOM AWARDS

Candor Homes

CANDOR Homes is thrilled to be finalists in five award categories at this year's HIA Awards.

Their nominations are:

- The Brighton - Display Home $700,000 to $800,000 (Chisholm)
- The Kensington - Kitchen in a Display Home (Cooranbong)
- The Eden - Display Home $650,000 to $700,000 (Lochinvar)
- The Leonora - Custom Built Home up to $600,000

"These nominations reflect the hard work and dedication of the entire team," sales manager Silvano Silvestri said.

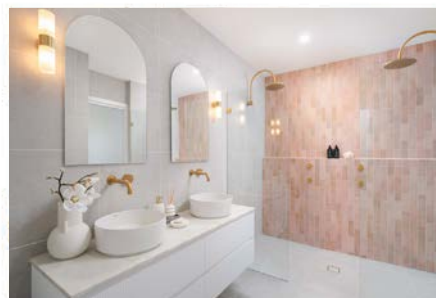

"A huge thank you goes to our incredible team and local trades and suppliers who helped make this happen.

"These finalist nominations are a fantastic recognition of the team's energy, care and commitment."

The team at Candor

Newcastle home builder Candor Homes design and construct homes that embrace lifestyle and family needs. Picture supplied complete and move-in ready, featuring thoughtful inclusions designed to go beyond the basics.

The team has built over 200 homes across the Hunter, Lake Macquarie and Newcastle over the past eight years.

They specialise in unique blocks and custom builds, including knockdowns, sloping or narrow sites, tailoring each home to suit every family.

Recent growth has brought exciting changes across the business.

The team has grown and developed, their display homes have doubled with more on the way, and their inclusions have been upgraded to give clients even more choice and value.

Behind the scenes, they have streamlined processes and strengthened their customer focus, making the experience simpler, more transparent, and better value than ever.

Candor Homes has also strengthened relationships with local trades and suppliers, ensuring their craftsmanship and quality always align with their values.

Candor Homes invites the public to visit their display homes at Chisholm, Lochinvar and Cooranbong to see the difference for themselves.

Homes prioritise people and value while offering full customisation and plan changes at no cost. Their commitment to educating and informing clients before they sign sets them apart. They maintain upfront, transparent pricing with no hidden costs and no surprises, ensuring great value from day one.

From first homes to forever homes, and from smart, affordable builds to luxury custom designs, Candor Homes has something for everyone.

Every home is delivered

